Q1. General elections are in progress and you have been appointed as a Sector Magistrate to oversee the free and peaceful election in a sector which has 10 polling stations. In course of your tour, you notice a powerful minister moving to various polling stations with deadly weapons. He is accompanied with anti-social elements. The people moving with the minister are intimidating the voters of SC Community not to dare to go to polling stations and vote. One of the supporter of the minister informs you on your mobile phone that it is better if you do not interfere and avoid confrontation.

What will you do in such a situation? Some of the options are given below. Evaluate the merits and demerits of these options and finally suggest what course of action, would you like to take giving reasons.

- (a) Arrest the minister along with his supporters and seize his arms, ammunition and vehicles, and immediately file a criminal case in local police station.
- (b) Inform the election control room and seek police reinforcement, and also instructions as what to do.
- (c) Go to villages inhabited by members of SC community and help them to cast their votes, by arranging vehicles.
- (d) Inform election observer and other senior authorities and seek their help and guidance, and until then avoid the minister.
- (e) Ignore the minister and his supporters with the hope that they might be caught if they create any disturbance on the polling stations, because on every polling station a static arm picket has been stationed.

(250 Words) (20 Marks)

(a) General elections are highest and most sacred and essential of democracy. Constitution provides for fair and free elections & guidance of Election Commission.

Q5. You are senior Civil Servant heading a big organization which has a large public interface. People make various complaints regarding poor sanitary conditions with public utilities stinking. Employees report to office quite late and openly ask for bribe in order to clear the pending files. Most of the employees and officers have political backing and patronage.

Having been dissatisfied with the state of affairs you have finally started to take few initiatives as follows. What could be merits/demerits of these initiatives?

- (a) You personally started cleaning the office on the birth date of father of the nation Mahatama Gandhi.
- (b) Asking the local anti-corruption unit to organize few traps on corrupt employees to catch them red handed.
- (c) Recommend for transfer of some of the officers and corrupt employees.
- (d) Warn the late-comers of serious consequences if they do not mend their ways.

What could be best course of action with justification? (250 Words) (20 Marks)

(a) This case deals with ethical issues of work culture, lack of integrity among public servants; lack of empathy and dedication to services.

(a) This certainly will boost the morale of people and will act as an example of leader leading ahead and will put a moral responsibility on officers but in long terms it might not have long lasting impact as need is change of attitude of people.

(b) This may act as deterrence for people but is not going to solve the problem as what is lacking is integrity and empathy towards people. But certainly it will have some impact on the officers as deterrence.

(c) This is not a wise option as transfer would have them some to some other place and they will start their practices there also. In long run efficiency of system will be affected and need is to reform the individual

(d) This seems a good option, warning them with ~~the~~ serious consequence as well as ~~awaring~~ making them aware of their duties and responsibilities

The problem here is with the attitude of the public servants and we need to reform that as well as win trust of local people.

- ① lead the Campaign to make ~~for~~ them realise about their responsibility
- ② sensitisation and awareness of public servants of their duties and responsibilities
- ③ Having dialogue with them and advising them about ethical means.
- ④ warning them about serious consequence
- ⑤ Active ~~as~~ vigilance search to ~~catch~~ catch people.
- ⑥ Public grievance redressal mechanism and winning the trust of people by assuring them.

This seems to best action as this will have long term impact on efficiency of system and restore faith of public in public servants -

Q7. How Emotional Intelligence helps a civil servant to bounce back from setbacks? Suppose in spite of best of precautions you fail to provide necessary articles to flood victims, and your whole team is demoralized. How will you be able to overcome the situation?

(250 Words) (20 Marks)

Ans Emotional intelligence is the ability to understand, perceive and manage one's and other emotions to guide their actions, behaviour and choices -

EQ plays a significant role in development of an individual and civil servants. It helps him to manage all emotions and get the best out of it rather than sinking into it. It help him to have control over emotions and not emotions controlling him. Thus a civil servant with good emotional intelligence is able to bounce back from setbacks by managing and regulating his emotions - It help him look failure as an opportunity and motivate him to go further and pursue his action rather than getting demoralised. Emotional intelligence develops self confidence, self realization, self esteem, which help an individual to improve his personal effectiveness and help him bounce back from setbacks by motivating him.

Remarks

Motivation of team is needed at this hour of time. Have a ~~discussion~~ dialogue with team and will make them realise that failure is a one step towards success. I will lead them and support them in their actions and together as a team will find out our short comings and work together to overcome them. I will appreciate them for the job they did with such constraints and limited resources and motivate them to look further for improvement and keep going.
