Programme Approach

► Relevance of Optional

- In the recent scenario, particularly post 2014- Mains, it has been observed that optional & essays have become the decider.
- Not much scope of marks enhancement exists in G.S. hence, choice of optional matters. The parameters should be
 - Availability of references.
 - Ease of understanding.
 - Contribution to overall exam.
 - An informed guide/mentor.

► For whom this programme is designed for

- Aspirants who are "soul searching" for an expansive coverage of Public Administration in the contemporary scenario.
- Aspirants who have read the subject and are not clear with concepts.
- Who know the facts, but lack it's finer analysis.
- Who have appeared for Mains but have not scored well.
- Aspirants who need a revision and develop a holistic perspective about the subject.

► Material Support

- Comprehensive matter would be given along with IIPA notes, 2nd ARC gist and 'relevant articles that are in contemporary debate.

► Whether tests would be conducted

- Yes, tests would be part of the curriculum and various previous year questions would be discussed in the class itself.
- Every Fortnight test would be conducted on the syllabus covered.
- Test Series including 8 Tests (6 Sectional Tests and 2 Mock Tests)

► Duration of the course

- It would be around 5 months with 2.5 hrs class, 5 days a week.

► How the course is different from regular crash course?

- It is based on our unique "approach based Methodology{.
- Integrating paper 1 & 2, with current illustrations & answer writing practice.
- Concept building & theoretical familiarity is the basis of foundation course.
