Prayers come in variety of ways -- Help me! Enlighten me!
Emancipate me! Thank you.

"We can live without religion and meditation but we cannot survive without human affection"

These wise words point out to importance of other humans in our lives, without them a person cannot survive. A child as soon as he steps into this world cries, it is a cry which brings not only happiness to mother but also a sense of responsibility. It is a cry of help which the infant needs in his early days of his life when he can practically do nothing for himself. However, not all are so expressive throughout their lives as man grows. He is expected not to cry but as he still needs support and thus his prayer takes different forms -- help me! Enlighten me! Emancipate me!

Thank you!

Humans gave away their freedom and chose to bound themselves when they moved from forest rule to a city life. In doing so they traded freedom with a sense of security, brotherhood and a belief that they will be helped by others when they are in peril. It is because of this that government, societies and each individual is duty bound to help others.

Can it be said that we have successfully fulfilled our duty? Answer is neither yes nor no. With the increasing number of female foeticides, genocides, rich & poor divide, migration, rejection of migrants, Rohingya crisis, discrimination the answer can hardly be a yes.

There is a ~~set~~ shrieking silent cry for help, a murmured prayer on everyone's lips for some or other reason. Some ~~what~~ manifestations of it

Excellent correct of current examples cited with the essence of the topic can be seen in the form of American election in which Trump whose propaganda was based on the miseries of the most citizens of most powerful and one of the richest nation.

They wanted more jobs & security, it can also be seen in form of Brexit where again citizens of a rich nation were asking for reverting to conditions when they were superpower and wanted to reduce competition brought by migrants. Deep prayer is not always expressed in words rather more often than not it is found in actions and decisions, it is not always quiet and peaceful rather it can take heinous forms like wars and protests. Protest during Nirbhaya rape case was a call, for justice, to those in power,

Remarks

 where people chose to get justice over peace this showed that they were ready for more fight rather than losing by patch compromise Freud said that human belief in religion and God is because of its desire for protection. Since childhood ~~we~~ ^{one} has seen father protect ~~us~~ but when one grows up he realises that human father is no longer capable of protecting him and it is then that man goes to God and prays for protection, enlightenment and emancipation from pain.
 Vedantists support bhakti marg and later Sri Aurobindo propogated Integral yoga all these are ways of gaining knowledge of that ultimate reality, that would enlighten him and would inform him of the purpose of life, of world and of living.

One also seeks emancipation from pain from suffering when one plays and the best manifestation is when humans take the grave step of deciding to end their lives or others lives for them, it is not an easy decision to pull the plug of a suffering mother, father, sibling or children but euthanasia is a reality and even so in

Aruna Shabang case legalised passive euthanasia

It is not just humans who pray but also various other life forms like animals and plants which pray in some form or another. Movement of sun flower with sun can be seen as a ~~desire~~ desire for sun's benevolence which it displays by turning every day & thus blessing the plant kingdom. Animals crave for same love and ~~the~~ care which humans need and they have same joy when they see their loved ones. A puppy runs to its owner wagging its tail praying to pat him and play with him, asking for attention time and care.

Excellent observation and sensitive! What a feel!

Saying that humans have failed to fulfill their duty of helping others is wrong because even though not completely successful it yet it is also not a road taken downhill. Reservation for minorities, historically oppressed women to give a boost to their lives shows how some prayers have been answered. Even of 95% of his assets to make a happier world for his daughter to live in shows

Remarks

Compassion, goodness, empathy and sincerity.
Bill Gates & Melinda Gates NGO which takes helps all sorts of people and solve multifarious problems is also an example of answering of prayers. UN, UN's human rights, sanctions, WTO, Bretton wood twins, Paris Agreement, Peta's work, Angela Merkel's opening of Germany's border for migrants are proofs that though not all prayers are heard or answered some efforts are surely made by society, community, countries and international organisations for the same.

 for all sorts of things and yet they forget to spiritual maturity doesn't require only love and respect for god - all living or even non-living beings!

Prayers are beautiful expressions of human beings. But to ~~make~~ allow prayers to be beautiful, it is important that they do not come in the form of

Section B

1. Our outrage is not enough, we must take real & focussed action to mend society's dramatic failures.

Lokhs gathered at Jantar Mantar to protest against government and increasing cases of corruption with no control of public over it. and thus demanding more powers. government promised to bring new laws to empower people and take account and hold corrupts answerable. ~~It~~ ^{It} was in 2013 when Lokpal and Lokayukt Act came and it 2017 today and till now the implementation is in limbo. because of technical requirement of leader of opposition, finally SC has recently interfered and has asked government to either modify the law or it would have to do so on behalf of government.

This a perfect case of society's outrage which proved insufficient this calling for a more real and focussed action to mend our societies' dramatic failures.

It can be said that society has failed at not one or two instances but at many times with rich states having lowest child sex ratio like that in Haryana (<900), with rise in temperature and change in climate forcing scientists to acknowledge that anthropocene age is here, with daily reports of rapes and government reports claiming that more than 95% culprits are known to victims, with increasing intolerance against movies, books, songs, religious practices, killing of people for voicing their opinion as happened in Gauri Lankes - hwas case; mass lynching people for their eating habits, with growing inacceptance.

Remarks

of others, reducing humanity by killing refusing migrants who would otherwise perish in their own country and with growing terrorism to such an extent that there is a call for dividing terrorists into good & bad. The

This shows a very grim picture of society and raises a question that should humans be called humans who according to great personalities were made by god to become its equal, is this how we will become great enough to stand with almighty. It calls for an analysis, for searching reasons and solutions to overcome this time of difficulty.

V. good curious questions!

Remarks

Major problem with society is attitudinal shift from earlier bonding, caring, loving and understanding to today's competitive, cruel, fast paced, inconsiderate one. Patriarchal society, heavy demands, male chauvinism, women-women fights are the reasons for the state of today's women, discrimination and comparison and the desire to be superior from atleast some has led to caste, race, religion ~~etc~~ problems. Consumerism, greed, desire to accumulate, race with not end point has led to downfall of society and has affected environment, nature and its other constituents too. Due to increasing population and greater wants burden on limited resources is increasing the nature is caving in, there is a demand-supply gap more people want jobs, security and land but there simply isn't enough to give. Problem is also due to over-accumulation - by some, Oxfam report states that 7 rich people possess half of the world's wealth.

These lead to question of ethical framework of human society, there is hardly any justification for it and this in turn has broken the spiritual contact people used to have with almighty, even at phenomenon level family support is also breaking thus causing so many problems.

There are many example of outrages some instantaneous, some due to brewing dissatisfaction over time. Protest for justification & justice for Nurbhaya, dissatisfaction over 24 scam, coal scam, common wealth scams however not all lead to permanent solutions.

Remarks

Paris agreement is falling apart with most polluting country, USA, withholding its support, UN outrage over North Korea in form of sanctions not bearing its fruit and still testing nuclear weapons, flying missiles over Japan, despite protests and public name calling Pakistan still creating terror, people voting ex-cons and murderers to power.

What happens is that people soon get accustomed to the tragedies, time heals all wounds

(even if such marks are left), things become acceptable and new though lower standards are set. Issues are forgotten but as only till the time when wound starts to itch again. Questions are again raised, public discussions and debates take place for eg. 9/11 US was struck with biggest jolt it had ever felt, it realised the need to eradicate terrorists' worked for it for some time and the case

Remarks

1- good insight!

at you should have at least one para why outcome brings storms only in coffee cups & not supported by action - lack of sensitivity? fear? insensitivity & self-centredness & indifference got faded away, it was brought to light again with recent terrorist attacks which have taken a more dangerous form - home self attack making anyone a killer creating terror & panic at a never before scale.

Thus calling people to realise that just periodic outrage will not solve the problem, steps like faster bringing to justice, better implementation of laws, change in attitude, change in life style, the way we commute, the amount of waste we produce, the way we look at others and their needs & cultural identities need to be changed. Truer form of democracy needs to be brought, children & adult both need to given value education so that there is more peace, harmony, cleanliness, tolerance, spiritually dignified life.

These will not come naturally or passively rather steps need to be taken communities need to be brought together and continuous efforts need to be made.

Thus it's time for active human action to root out evil once and for all.

All problems should be focussed upon to bring a holistic change for betterment.
